Francfort, August 8, N. S.

THE Army of Prince Eugene is arrived in the Neighbourhood of this City, the Right extending it ſelf to Meerfelden, which is about three Leagues and half from hence, and three from Mentz, and the Left at Geinſheyn upon the Rhine: It is thought that they will in a Day or two paſs the Maine at Slengingen, whither the Bridge of Boats which was at Mentz is bringing. It is reported that the Marſhal d'Aſfeldt, whoſe Army is encamped in the Neighbourhood of Oppenheim, will paſs the Rhine there, and advance towards Prince Eugene. The King of Pruſſia is to ſet out from the Army the 12th for Weſel, though it is believed that his Majeſty will defer his Departure if there ſhould be any Likelihood of Action. Prince William of Heſſe arrived here Yeſterday.

Hague, Aug. 13, N. S. The King of Pruſſia is ſhortly expected here from the Imperial Army, in order, as it is ſaid, to conſult Dr. Boerhaave at Leyden. The States of Holland have reſolved to give the vacant Troop in the Horſe Guards to the Son of M. Vander Duyn, one of the College of the Nobles of this Province. Letters from Dantzick adviſe, that the Court had diſpatched the Univerſalia for holding the particular Dietines in the Provinces, and that of Poliſh Pruſſia was to be held in Fifteen Days; that the Ruſſian and Saxon Troops were to decamp in a little Time; that the firſt would take their Route towards the Places where the ſaid Dietines were to be held, and that the latter would go and poſt themſelves in Great Poland. Theſe Letters add, that M. Rewuski had been declared Regimentary, and that he is to command a ſmall Body of Troops, compoſed of 2000 Ruſſian Dragoons, 1000 Coſſacks, and the Regiment of Guards which was heretofore in the Service of King Staniſlaus.

Whitehall, Auguſt 3.

Whereas I Peter de Bordes de Bercheres, Eſq; Eldeſt Lieutenant in his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Guards, was, on Monday the 8th of July laſt, at Nine a-Clock at Night, aſſaulted in the Mall in St. James's Park, and wounded in the Arm by John Langley, of Colonel Mordaunt's Company, in his Majeſty's Third Regiment of Foot Guards, and robbed of a rich Purſe embroidered with Gold and Silver, with this Motto, Celui qui donne l'aumone eſt beni de Dieu, containing 26 French new Louis d'Ors, and a fine antique Gold Medal of Cæſar Gordianus, on the reverſe Side whereof a Victory with this Motto, Victoria Auguſta; *and whereas the ſaid John Langley has ſince deſerted, I the ſaid Peter de Bordes de Bercheres do hereby promiſe a Reward of Three Guineas to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend the ſaid John Langley, in order to his being proſecuted according to Law. NB.
